GAMES IN OTHER CITIES.

CINCINNATI, July 16 .- Miserable fielding by Fennelly an CINCINNATI, July 16.—Miserable neighbory pennelly and wretched back-stop work by Baldwin gave the Brooklyns a lead to-day which the Cincinnatis could not oversome. They natted Porter terrifically, but always at some fielder. Had Mullane received the same support the Cincinnatis would have won easily. The Brooklyns were lucky in having their hits and the Cincinnati's errors bunched. After the fourth luming the Brooklyns could do nothing with Mullane. The incinuatis had ten men left on bases, the majority reaching nrd. Nicot's batting and fielding was the only redeeming ature of the Cincinuati's game. Peoples, behind the bat, id some great work, making but one bad throw. Porter did some great work with the stick. The day was intensely hot, being 96 degrees in the shade. Four thousand people were present. The score was as follows:

ARCHBISHOP CORRIGAN HAS NOTHING TO SAY. Archbishop Corrigan returned to the city late last evening, but declined to say anything for publication in regard to Dr. McGlynn's case. From those in a position to know, however, it was learned that no pastgral letter will be read in the Catholic churches of this diocese to-day, nor is it yet positively known that one will be given out at all. So far as can be ascertained none has been prepared. One of the prelascertained none has been prepared. One of the prelate's friends said last evening: "I do not think that the Archbishop will take any notice of the statements made by Dr. McGlynn." The Archbishop will visit Blackwall's Island to-day to administer confirmation to a number of convicts there. He will also go out of town this week on a short vacation.

Dr. McGlynn will start for Philadelphia this morning. He will address the Anti-Povesty Society of that city to-night, returning here early in the week. One of his most intimate and best informed friends said last night that the doctor would not sue Arch-Said last night that the doctor would not sue Arch-bishop Corrigan for damages "because," he added, "Dr. McGlynn has not been injured. All the damage done in this business has been sustained by the other

A CHANCE TO BREAK UP A "GANG." John M.
